Committee Reports & Unfinished Business

President Muehler stated that Pauline Masson was out of town, but told her that the stone for King Adams is being engraved. Discussion followed.

Unfinished Business

A. Alts Cemetery Lot

President Muehler stated the Alts cemetery lot is complete. Bob Myers thought another wheel barrel or two of dirt was still needed. The improvement makes it look like a whole complete lot.

B. Sign up in the cemetery

President Muehler stated the “no dogs” sign has been installed at the other entrance.

New Business

President Muehler stated that Nellie Mueller’s number is not on the website and she discussed this with Nettie Painter.

A. Tree in cemetery

President Muehler stated on the west side of the cemetery after the gate, there is an red granite stone that is Dr. Leibbrings. There is a big tree there the roots are bringing the headstones out of the dirt. She suggested the tree be cut down. Bob Myers stated he hated to see the tree come down, but suggested leaving the tree and resetting the stone. He continued that there was dead limbs in the tree that needed to be cut. There are also other trees in the cemetery that needed to be trimmed. Committee members agreed that Bob Myers would discuss this with Cemetery Sexton Bruns.

Adjournment

There being no further business, motion made by Edith McLaren, seconded by Nellie Mueller to adjourn. The meeting adjourned at 2:05 p.m.
